

Lomandra longifolia (Mat Rush)

This is a shorter variety of lomandra with finer, dark green foliage.

When mass planted is popular as a specimen plant for commercial and home use.

Tolerates drought, frost and wind.

Botanical name: Lomandra longifolia

Common name: Mat-rush

Height: 80 centimetres      Width: 80 centimetres

Ideal position

Can be planted in full sun or moderate shade.

Suits sandy to heavy clay soils.

Caring tips

Once established is very low maintenance.

Remove spent flower stems in late spring.

Rainfall will usually look after watering however do water during very hot or dry periods.

